STIPULATION AND ORDER RE: CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

17 Plaintiff Jean J. Schwartzer, by and through her counsel of record, Andrew L. Rempfer, 18 Esq. and Defendants Clark County District Attorney and Clark County, by and through their 19 attorney, Walter R. Cannon, Esq., hereby agree and stipulate as follows:

20 1. The parties enter into this Stipulation and Protective Order under Federal Rule of 21 Civil Procedure 26(c) to establish procedures for the handling of documents produced by the 22 parties in response to discovery requests.

23 2. Any party may designate and mark certain documents produced in response to 24 discovery requests as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." The party
25 designating such documents shall be referred to as the Designating Party and any party in receipt 26 of such documents shall be referred to as the Receiving Party. Documents so marked may be used 27 only for purposes of this litigation.
28

1 3. Except as otherwise ordered by this Court, documents marked "CONFIDENTIAL"
2 or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" and the contents of documents so marked may be 3 disclosed only to employees or agents of Clark County, Nevada, and the following persons:

- 4 (a) counsel of record for Plaintiff;
5 (b) counsel of record for Defendants;
6 (c) the non-technical and clerical staff employed by counsel of record;
7 (d) interpreters and copying services employed by counsel of record's employer
8 to the extent reasonably necessary to render professional services in this case;
9 (e) any private court reporter retained by counsel for depositions in this case; 10 (f) subject to the terms of paragraph 5, persons retained by counsel to serve as 11 expert witnesses or consultants in this case; and 12 (g) personnel of the Court, including court reporters, officials and employees of 13 the Clerk of Court, and staff of the presiding United States District Judge and United States
14 Magistrate Judge, to the extent deemed necessary by the Court.

15 4. If counsel for a Receiving Party determines that it is necessary to disclose any 16 document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any 17 persons other than the individuals included in paragraph 3, that counsel shall set forth the grounds 18 for the disclosure and seek the written consent of counsel for the Designating Party. The 19 Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving Party's request within seven calendar days unless 20 the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period. If counsel for the Designating Party does not 21 consent, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel for the Designating Party shall within five 22 court days of the Designating Party's response meet and confer in person or telephonically
23 regarding the issue, during which meeting and conference counsel for the Receiving Party shall 24 specify the reasons why disclosure is necessary. If any agreement is not reached, the Designating 25 Party shall move the Court within the ten calendar days of the meeting and conference for a 26 protective order preventing disclosure. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the document unless 27 the Designating Party has failed to file a motion within the time allowed or the Court has denied 28 the motion.

1 5. If counsel for the Receiving Party determines that it is necessary to disclose any
2 document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to an expert
3 or consultants retained to render professional services in this case, that counsel shall notify counsel
4 for the Designating Party in writing at least seven days before the proposed disclosure with the 5 name of the expert or consultant. The Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving Party's 6 notification within seven calendar days unless the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period. If 7 counsel for the Designating Party objects, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel for the 8 Designating Party shall within five court days of the Designating Party's response meet and confer
9 in person or telephonically regarding the issue. If an agreement is not reached, the Designating 10 Party shall move the court within ten calendar days of the meeting and conference for a protective 11 order preventing disclosure. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the document unless the 12 Designating Party has failed to file a motion within the time allowed or the Court denies the 13 motion.

14 6. Any party may object to the propriety of the designation of documents as 15 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" by objecting and setting forth in 16 writing the grounds for the objection. The Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving 17 Party's objection within seven calendar days unless the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period.
18 If an agreement is not reached, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel for the Designating 19 Party shall within five court days of the Designating Party's response meet and confer in person or 20 telephonically, during which meeting and conference counsel for the Receiving Party shall specify
21 the grounds for objection with respect to each document at issue. If the parties cannot agree, then 22 the Designating Party will then have ten calendar days after the conference of counsel to file a 23 motion to preserve the confidentiality designation. The burden of proof to demonstrate 24 confidential treatment of any information at all times remain with the Designating Party. The 25 parties shall treat the documents as the subject to this Stipulation and Order unless the Designating 26 Party has failed to file a motion within the time allowed or the Court has denied the motion.

1 7. Before disclosing any document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO 2 PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any person identified in subparagraph (c) of paragraph 3, counsel of 3 record for the Receiving Party shall advise that person of the terms of this Stipulation and 4 Protective Order and that he or she is bound by those terms. In addition, before disclosing any
5 document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any person
6 identified in subparagraphs (d), (e), or (f) of paragraph 3, counsel for the Receiving Party shall 7 ensure that the person (1) has read and agrees to the terms of this Protective Order and (2) has 8 acknowledged his or her agreement by signing a copy of the attached Acknowledgment before any 9 such document is disclosed to him or her;

10 ACKNOWLEDGMENT

11 I have read the Stipulation and Protective Order Governing Documents
12 Produced by the Parties in this case. I understand its terms and agree to be bound 13 by the terms of the Protective Order. I understand that my duties under the 14 Protective Order will survive the termination of this case and that failure to comply with its terms may result in the District Court imposing sanctions on me. I consent to personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing the Protective Order.

15 8. Counsel for each party shall retain copies of the Acknowledgment forms executed
16 by persons authorized for access on behalf of that party until this litigation, including all appeals, 17 concludes. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the Designation Party's own disclosure of 18 documents marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER."

19 9. Any person receiving access to a document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or 20 "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" shall maintain the document, any copies of the 21 document, and any information derived from the document in a confidential manner and shall take 22 steps to avoid disclosure to persons not authorized under this Order to have access to the 23 documents or information.

24 10. Within thirty days of the conclusion of this litigation, including all appeals, counsel 25 for the Receiving Party shall destroy or send to counsel for the Designating Party all copies of

1 Notwithstanding this paragraph, however, the parties' attorneys may retain one copy of 2 each document filed with the Court that contains or refers to any of the designated documents.
3 Furthermore, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the parties' attorneys to 4 disclose any attorney work-product to opposing counsel.

5 11. In connection with a deposition in this case, a witness or any counsel may indicate 6 that a question or answer refers to the content of a document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or 7 "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." If the indication occurs on the record during the 8 deposition, all persons not authorized to review such documents shall leave the deposition room
9 until completion of the answers referring to the document and the reporter shall mark the transcript
10 of the designated testimony "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER."

11 12. If any party wishes to submit into the written record of this case any document 12 marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or excerpts from any 13 such document, that party shall seek to submit the document under seal.

14 13. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order prevents any party from 15 challenging any assertion of privilege by any party, and nothing in this Stipulation and Protective 16 Order constitutes a waiver of any assertion of privilege by any party or precludes any party from 17 moving for consideration of information ex parte and in camera.

1 14. Anyone found to be in violation of this Order may have sanctions imposed against 2 him or her as the Court may determine and allowable under law and may also be subject to 3 contempt of court proceedings.
